

With the Washington Churches

EPISCOPAL

The Rev. W. L. M. Moore, who is now well known in the city on account of the splendid work he is doing in the mountains of Virginia, not only in a spiritual, but also in an effective philanthropic and effective material way, was in this city this week, coming here on account of his brother's marriage, which took place Wednesday last at St. Paul's Church. Many of those interested in his work were anxious to have him stay and address meetings. One or two meetings were in fact arranged for him, but he was obliged to return immediately on account of prior engagements.

Another visitor to our city this week was the Rev. Chalmers D. Chapman, of Cleveland, N. C., who has been guest at his brother's residence, 222 Wisconsin Avenue. While here he preached on one or two occasions in our churches.

Archdeacon Williams, who was not able to attend the archdeaconry meeting last week on account of illness, is still confined to his room. His many friends will be glad to hear of his return to his usual health and strength.

The Rev. James W. Smith, who has just resigned Trinity Parish, Charles County, is in the city. The parish is anxious to hear of his successor. Also the parish at Collingwood is looking for a successor to the late James Kirkpatrick, though in this instance the vestry of the parish has a successor in mind and believes he will accept.

One winter's night small house in the outskirts of this city was burned to the ground. The father, mother and eight children barely escaped death. Everything they had was burned. Early in the morning the clergymen of the church to which the family belonged applied to the First Needwork Guild for a grant. Before noon of that day a complete double outfit of new winter underwear, bed clothing, blankets, quilts, and other needed articles was supplied to that family by the First Needwork Guild.

Instead of making distribution on one day in the year, the First Needwork Guild continues its work throughout the winter, from November to April. While the Guild gives generously to homes, hospitals and other organizations, instead of confining its benevolence to such institutions, the Guild prefers to give to individuals, through its own members, and especially through the various church organizations to which its members belong.

The regular meeting of the Sunday School Institute, of the Diocese of Washington, was held last Tuesday, November 19, in Epiphany Parish Hall. The speaker of the evening was the Rev. Stewart P. M. D. D., field secretary of the third department Sunday schools, who had just returned from Southern Maryland, where he had good institute work.

This was the program: Topic 1, "The Work of the Field Secretary." Topic 2, "The Standard Curriculum of Sunday School Instruction." Topic 3, "Five Steps in Teaching."

There was a good attendance of Sunday school teachers and others interested. The day following Dr. M. D. D., accompanied by the Rev. Dr. De Vries, went to College Park, Prince George's County, where they held a similar meeting. There was a service in addition at St. Andrew's Church, College Park, at 7:30 p. m., with addresses on Sunday school work, by Dr. M. D. D. and Dr. De Vries.

The special meetings in country churches are planned for the benefit of the clergy and Sunday school workers in the rural sections of the diocese. To make the work more up to date, the address of the speakers, particularly of course, of Dr. M. D. D., who is the field secretary of the third department of Sunday schools, was a source of not only information, but of inspiration.

LUTHERAN

Dr. G. A. Anderson, president of Augustana College and Theological Seminary, Rock Island, Ill., and Dr. C. E. Lindberg will address the mission in the chapel of Luther Place Memorial Church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All Scandinavians are cordially invited to attend.

A memorial service in honor of the late Harry F. Lerch will be held in Epiphany Lutheran Church, Avenue of the Presidents and U Street, Sunday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock.

The service will be conducted by Rev. Charles F. Steck, D. D., who will make a brief address on the life of the deceased. A second address will be delivered by Hon. Henry P. Blair, concerning the late Mr. Lerch.

WARNING TO PARENTS.

It is risky to feed raw milk and cream to children or invalids unless you are sure that the farm which produces the milk the utmost cleanliness is observed at all times, particularly during milking; that the employees are thoroughly healthy and cleanly persons; that the cows are free from disease; that the water used for rinsing is of undoubted purity, and that the milk is quickly cooled and kept cold and covered until delivered to you.

Raw milk often produces Tuberculosis, Scarlet Fever, also Typhoid and other intestinal diseases.

We can guard against infection by properly pasteurizing milk or by home pasteurization.

Properly pasteurizing milk (and cream) by keeping it at 160 deg. F. for twenty to thirty minutes does not affect its nutritive value nor its digestibility.

The best system is to pasteurize the milk after it has been bottled.

You can home pasteurize raw milk by heating it to near boiling, then cool, and keep cold and covered until used.

Most indignation in babies is caused by milk too rich in cream.

Society for Prevention of Sickness.

E. BERLINER, Secretary

ing Mr. Lerch's standing and achievements in the legal fraternity, as well as in the business and social organizations to which he belonged.

The vested choir of Epiphany Church, which Mr. Lerch was organist, will lead the music of the service, and Miss Edith Stowell, soprano soloist of the choir, will sing "These Are They," from Gounod's "Hail Mary."

Mr. Lerch was a member of the official council of Epiphany Church, of Harmony Lodge, of the local Bar Association, the University Club, the Columbia Country Club, and the Business High School and George Washington alumni associations. Members representing each of these organizations will be present at this memorial service.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Christian Endeavor Union is completing preparations for its series of Thanksgiving morning "participation services." These meetings have been scheduled for various sections of the city at 9 o'clock, Thanksgiving morning.

Not only the Christian Endeavor Society of the church where the meeting occurs is invited to participate, but all the C. E. societies in the District of Columbia have been asked to send a delegation of one or more members. The places where the meetings will be held are as follows: North Carolina Avenue, M. P. North Carolina Avenue and Eighth Street Northwest; Northminster Presbyterian, Rhode Island Avenue and Eleventh Street Northwest; First Congregational, G and Tenth Streets Northwest; First M. P., Rhode Island Avenue and First Street Northwest; Congress Heights Baptist, Congress Heights, D. C.; Chevy Chase Presbyterian, Chevy Chase, D. C.; Takoma Park Presbyterian, Takoma Park, D. C.

At these meetings, respectively, will be as follows: T. C. Crump, superintendent of the evangelistic department of the Christian Endeavor Union; A. W. Starratt, Horace M. Gill, S. Foster, D. Davis, all former presidents of the Christian Endeavor Union, and others. Special music will be a feature of all the services. Edward P. Gates, field secretary for Christian Endeavor for the State of Illinois, and Rexford L. Holmes, president of the local C. E. Union, will attend three of the services in succession, and speak briefly at each.

The Christian Endeavorers of Washington and Christian people generally in this community will eagerly anticipate the coming to this city of Dr. Francis E. Clark, the president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union, numbering more than four million members. Dr. Clark will be the guest of honor at a reception by Washington Endeavorers Saturday evening, December 13, Sunday afternoon, December 14, "Father Clark," as he is affectionately called the world over, will be introduced to the crowds who will want to hear him at the Columbia Theatre, by the Secretary of State. Mr. Bryan is a great admirer of Dr. Clark, and a firm friend of Christian Endeavor. The music at this theater meeting will be in charge of Mr. Percy S. Foster, of this city, the well-known convention song-leader. Mr. Foster has directed the music at several of the State and national conventions of Christian Endeavor in the United States, and on Sunday evening, December 14, Dr. Clark will deliver an address to the young people and their friends in the Calvary Baptist Church, the occasion being the twenty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the Calvary Baptist C. E. Society. On Monday evening, December 15, will be held the regular Christian Endeavor Union meeting, postponed until that date on account of the illness of Dr. Clark. The regular time of meeting, Dr. Clark will also speak at this service.

METHODIST.

Despite the exceedingly bad weather last Sunday, the Epworth League of the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church was well attended. The meetings are done to make the people feel as if they were in their own church. Metropolitan is indeed the home of the stranger in Washington, and one of the busiest churches in the downtown section of the city. The pastor and all members of the official board are well pleased that the young people are coming out in greater numbers than ever before, and every department of the church is in an excellent condition.

The Bible Class, taught by Dr. Montgomery in the morning, is increasing in membership and now has an average attendance of about sixty. The Sunday School proper is also in a flourishing condition, several new members being enrolled last Sunday. Plans are now being made for the annual Sunday School reunion to be held some time in January.

Plans are under way for a contest between the Epworth Leagues of four of the Methodist churches, namely the Metropolitan, Foundry, Hamline, and Douglas. The subject for tomorrow evening is: "The Foreigner in the United States," and the leader is Mrs. Hyam.

The fourth of the series of sermons by Rev. Dr. Lucius C. Clark, of Hamline M. E. Church, Ninth and P Streets Northwest, will be given Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The topic will be, "St. Luke, the Professional."

These discussions are of increasing interest, and most vividly portray the historical characters of the Bible.

Dr. James Sherr Montgomery is announced to speak at the Metropolitan Methodist Church Sunday evening on the subject, "The Progress of the Common People." Dr. William H. Wilder will preach at the morning service. His subject will be "Happiness, and How to Attain It." Free seats to the public.

DISCIPLE.

The recent fire at Ninth Street Christian Church, Ninth and D Streets Northeast, will not interfere with any of the church services. This Sunday morning will be "Boys and Girls Rally Day for Home Missions," and a suitable program will be rendered. At the evening services the pastor, the Rev. George A. Miller, will preach the fourth sermon in the series of "The Church Through the Ages."

NOTES OF THE SCHOOLS

Every year the pupils of the public school of the District are given the opportunity of making contributions toward the support of needy children in the school ranks. These offerings of money or supplies are made just before Thanksgiving day and are a generous donation. Shoes, clothing and often food and fuel are furnished children to make it possible for them to attend school.

"The Spirit of Dancing" was the subject of an address along lines of helpfulness in the proper selection of amusements for young people, given by Mrs. Margaret Coleman before the Parents' League at the Wilson Normal School, Tuesday afternoon. E. E. Kramer followed the address with some pertinent comments on local amusements.

A reunion and reception of graduates of Central High School will be held on the afternoon of December 26 from 2 to 6 o'clock. There will be a number of short speeches by old graduates, and a musical program including songs and stanzas familiar to every Centralite. Fred L. Fishback, '33 is president of the Alumni Association.

Flax Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution entertained several hundred pupils of the Thomson night school on Wednesday evening with a choice literary and musical program. Assistant Secretary James of the Y. M. C. A. made an address on "Patriotic Education." Mrs. Duff G. Lewis, Maryland School and Miss Ida Ewing gave musical numbers.

Dr. Jesse H. Ransburg, of the Star Mount Sanatorium, delivered an address on "The Prevention of Tuberculosis" before the Central Home and School Association Wednesday evening in the assembly hall of Grover Cleveland School. Teachers of the Abbot School were hosts of the occasion, their guests being other schools forming the association. A musical and literary program followed the address, in which Mrs. Howard S. Fisk, Mrs. G. F. Thompson, the Misses Marion Larner, and Margaret Archer, Harold, Francis, and Harry King furnished entertainment for the large audience assembled.

Interchange of visits by high school cadets of neighboring cities is becoming a feature of high school development. Last week about forty young men from the High School of Frederick, Md., accompanied by their principal, Prof. Amos Burger, spent two days in the local high schools setting up ideas, especially in the line of cadet drill practice.

The girls' basketball team of Central High School will play the team of George Washington University at Epiphany gym next Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Kalk, a teacher of drawing in the Washington schools, now on a year's leave to study art at Pratt Institute, is taking honors in her work at the Brooklyn art center.

One of the most novel entertainments of the season is scheduled to take place at the Dent School, Second and South Carolina Avenue Southeast, next Wednesday afternoon. It will be a "John Martin" afternoon, when people, pictures, stories, and advertisements made famous by this student of child life will be presented in costume by the pupils of the school.

It will be a continuous performance, beginning with the alphabet, appropriate by costume, fitting across the scene. "Nonsense" drawings and caricatures, by Miss M. L. Burke, will add no end of fun to the occasion. Living advertisements forming the closing numbers of the show are said to be extremely clever.

Dr. James Fleming Homic, editor of the English Journal and head of the English department of the University of Chicago, gave a lecture on "How to Teach English," before the English Teachers' Club at Wilson Normal School Friday afternoon. Auditorium and library were decorated.

The subject of the sermon will be "The Age of Papyrus." These sermons are growing in popularity, and crowds are attending.

About the Evolution Question.

"The Cross of Evolution" will be the subject of an address by Mr. J. A. MacKnight before the Washington Secular League at its meeting at Pythian Temple at 3 p. m. Sunday. Mr. MacKnight is an interesting speaker and competent thinker and his address promises to be of special interest to all who hold to the evolutionary theory, and, in fact, to all serious, profound thinkers. As in the league's custom, following the address there will be a general discussion of the subject, in which any person present may participate and give expression of his own view of the matter. An interesting and humorous prelude appropriate to the topic will be given by Mr. Middleton Smith.

Mr. Woodworth of New York. Evangelist C. J. Woodworth, of New York, is to make his first appearance before the Washington Temple Congregation (nondenominational) at the service to be held in New Masonic Temple tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

He will take as his subject, "The Mutual Love of Christ and the Church." Memorandum of appointments, separations, transfers, &c., in the Government Printing Office for the week ending November 23:
